

CENTER NEWS BRIEFS

Giles Family Reunion Held Last Sunday

Mrs. Otis Sweat - Correspondent
Phone 06-F12

The Giles Family Reunion was held Sunday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Giles. A large group was in attendance and a pleasant day was spent together.

Happy birthday this week to Wilford Binggeli, July 24th; Neil Mahoney, July 25th; Merle Sweat and Brent Briggs, July 26; LeRoy Mair, July 28 and Jimmy McDonald, July 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Louris Mahoney spent the weekend in the hills recently with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mahoney and children of Salt Lake.

Marie Crook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Crook had the misfortune to break her collarbone while playing but is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Peterson and girls of Sunnyside visited here a day or so this week with his mother, Della Peterson and other family members.

Mrs. Alta Jones of Eureka and daughters visited recently with her sister, Erma Wade and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Atkinson and children of Oakley visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wade.

Ross Sweat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Randquist of Boise, Idaho and Kenneth Flitton of Salt Lake, accompanied Virginia Sweat from Salt Lake last weekend and have been visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Flitton and children of Salt Lake visited Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Sweat with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson and children of Heber.

Mr. and Mrs. Nile McDonald and baby of Salt Lake spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson. Mrs. Carrie Anderson of Heber also visited with her son, Kenneth and family.

Duane Ryan of Los Angeles visited with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ryan and called on friends. He was accompanied by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Binggeli and Mr. and Mrs. John Sundblom joined other members of their family from Heber and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer James and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gustaveson of Salt Lake at a canyon supper at Lodgepole Camp on Saturday night to honor the birthday of their brother, Andrew Allison who recently returned from California where they have spent the last few months.

Lorna Sweat and Jean Horrocks went to Salt Lake Saturday and brought Merle home after spending the week with relatives.

Some of the members of the Primary Stake Board visited our Primary last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver High and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ivie of Salt Lake spent overnight with Mr. and Mrs. David Ivie.

Melvin Moulton visited our Sunday School and Priesthood in the interest of the Aaronic Priesthood Sunday.

George Stanley gave a fine talk in our rSacrament Meeting Sunday night.

Phyllis and Norma Christensen entertained the members of the Merry Mrs. Club at a swimming party at the Mountain Spaa last Wednesday and enjoyed supper after.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sweat joined other members of the Mitchell family for a picnic with relatives near Mountain Home.

Pearl Barnes and Tommy accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Vern Barnes to Salt Lake last Wednesday for a check-up. They returned home with Don Ivie. She left Wednesday to receive medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald went to Ogden recently and brot

NEWS

Mrs. T. H. Jones Hurts Back in Fall

Mrs. T. H. Jones had the misfortune to fall injuring her back. We hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Casper and family are spending their vacation at Yellowstone Park.

Quite a number of club members attended the 4-H outing at Smith-Moorehouse. Accompanying them were Melba Price, Nola Luke, Margaret Casper, Delsa Price and Leora Collard and Narda Jacobsen.

Mrs. Dean Bethers and family were in Kearns Friday visiting at the Ray Kummer residence. Mary came back with them for a visit.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Otto McGill and son, Mrs. Martha McWhierson of Provo visited relatives here.

Miss Jane Smith of Murray has been visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith. She returned home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKenzie and daughter are spending their vacation in Colorado visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. McGuire and daughters went to Salt Lake City Thursday to take their grandson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stanley and daughters returned from their vacation trip Thursday.

Miss Enid Duke was speaker in our Sacrament meeting. Arlene Price rendered an organ solo, "Oh My Father". A good number enjoyed the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Collard and Betty were in Bingham Sunday to visit a brother, Justine Collard. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Symes and family of Magna. Cathy and Gordon Symes returned with them for a visit.

Masters Jay and Bruce Mitchell returned to their home in Kearns Sunday after spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Elliott.

LOCAL & SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Anderson and family left Sunday to return to their home at Pullman, Washington. He has been in Alabama to attend an instructor school while his wife, LuAnna, has been a guest of her mother, Luella Fitzgerald and family.

On Monday, Mrs. Merle Holmes came from Provo to join Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis, Deanna, Kathleen, Virginia and Janice of Ruth, Nevada who were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Annie Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Lee. Mervin Lewis also visited with them. The Lewis' spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bethers as the ladies are sisters.

The Fourth Ward enjoyed an interesting meeting Sunday evening when LaVon Bond and Emeline Kindred told of their recent vacation in Hawaii. After church a Fireside was held in the recreation Hall where the ladies showed colored films of their journey.

The Lucky Clovers 4-H Club met at the Memorial Building on June 24th to be shown how to make white bread by Mary Bacon. The next day, the club met at the Courthouse to judge their bread. Two weeks later, they met at the home of their leader, Mary Witt to make whole wheat bread. On July 11, the club met at the home of Pauline Bethers. A table-setting demonstration was given by Glenna Grandy and Pauline Bethers. Judy Todd gave a health talk. Plans about going to 4-H camp were discussed and assignments for the next meeting which will be held at Mary Witt's home on July 18 were made.